What Sets Revegy Apart

Grow revenue with collaborative planning and deal execution tools.

Revey drives superior results because it was designed to support the way that account teams and salespeople work and think. Our visual tools make collaboration easy and immediate - leveraging the information from HubSpot without duplicate data entry. Everybody can see what's happening now, as well as potential risks ahead. The consistency that Revey automatically builds into the process keeps everyone focused on the way to win.

What makes Revey different helps make key account teams successful

Intelligent Execution

Revegy is an intelligent sales platform that assesses each situation and guides your team through every step of account planning and deal execution. It alerts salespeople of potential deal risks or account blind spots, and pinpoints what to do about it.

People Maps -

Shows who you know, and who you need to know, to expand relationships and close deals.

Works The Way YOU Sell

Our platform fits any sales methodology and conforms to the unique needs of different sales teams across geographies. Revey has the ability to adapt your sales process to align with your customer's buying journey.

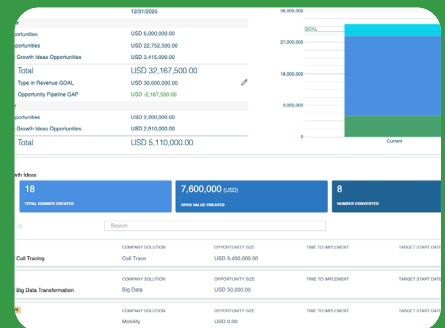

Execution Playbooks -

Easily configured to operationalize any sales or account process - even those you've created.

It's Visual

Revegy works the way your sales people think – visually. It quickly highlights political issues, identifies the strongest opportunities and understands the right activities needed to develop critical relationships, penetrate an account or progress a deal.

Revegy Analytics -

Provide powerful insights into account, opportunity, and portfolio health.
